Dear Raymond,

RE: Workers' Compensation Claim

Claim Number: PE2201399
Employer: Nateis Contracting Pty Ltd
Date of Injury: 24 February 2022

To assist with the ongoing management of your injury, we have arranged for you to attend a medical examination, the details of which are as follows:

Doctor: Dr Brian Dare
Date: 14th April 2022
Time: 12:15pm
Address: 29 Walters Drive, OSBORNE PARK WA 6017

The doctor requires all appointments to be confirmed by telephone, and we request that you please telephone their rooms on 08 9201 3300 to confirm your attendance at least one week before your appointment.

Please ensure that you take with you all x-rays, CT scans, MRIs and any other investigations or results of tests undertaken in relation to your injury.

This appointment has been arranged pursuant to section 64 of the Workers' Compensation & Injury Management Act 1981. We are required to notify you of the terms and conditions of the section which is set out below.

64. Medical examination, worker claiming injury may be required to attend

- (1) Where a worker has given notice of an injury he shall, if so required by the employer, submit himself for examination by a medical practitioner provided and paid by the employer.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to an election made by the worker-
  - (a) for the purposes of section 24 to receive compensation in accordance with that section for permanent loss of the full efficient use of the back, neck or pelvis; or
  - (b) for the purposes of section 31C to receive compensation in accordance with that section for impairment of the back, neck or pelvis.
- (3) A reference in subsection (1) to the employer is, where the employer is insured against liability to pay compensation under this Act, a reference to the employer's insurer.

Please note that failing or refusing to attend the appointment, or obstructing the doctor's examination, without a reasonable excuse, could result in a suspension of your compensation payments.

We would be grateful if you would please confirm with this office, either by telephone or in writing, that you are able to attend the appointment. Alternatively, if you are not able to attend the appointment please contact us immediately.

Thank you for your cooperation. Should you have any questions regarding your appointment or your claim, please contact the undersigned at QBE on 08-9213-6143. You may also contact WorkCover WA if you would like further advice in relation to this letter.

Yours faithfully
